Potatoes and Cabbage (lyrics) ©Poppinksongs 2011

St. Patrick's Day is so much fun
Colouring shamrocks in the sun
So do a dance and bang a drum
And eat potatoes and cabbage

St Paddy's got a history
He was kind and good you see
He followed all his magic dreams
And ate potatoes and cabbage

He was kidnapped at 16
By Irish raiders cruel and mean but
He got away and studied and prayed
And ate potatoes and cabbage

He brought the Irish people faith
He built a church, became a saint
Some people say he scared the snakes
And ate potatoes and cabbage

We celebrate March 17
So don't get pinched and wear some green
Welcome in the sunny spring and
Eat potatoes and cabbage

Let's be Irish, sing a song and
Look for clovers on the lawn
A leprechaun may come a long he'll be
Eating potatoes and cabbage
Eating potatoes and cabbage
Eating potatoes and cabbage
